The Omni-PRESS team would like to thank all of the Contractors, Distributors, Architects, Wholesalers and OEM that visited us during the 2008 MCE trade show in Milan, Italy. We are pleased with the response we received to our new Omni-PRESS plumbing system.

We look forward to an exciting year of final development and receiving our DVGW certifications. Our goal is to launch the PEX pipe products during the third quarter of 2008 and the Multi-layer pipe products during the fourth quarter of 2008.
